NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — Forty to 60 elderly persons were killed in a fire which swept the Golden Age Rest Home in Fitchville, the Huron County sheriff's office reported.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Wade said there were believed to be as many as 85 persons in the one-story building, which had several wings. Only 20-25 persons were definitely reported to have reached safety. Many still were trapped in the burning building.

When firemen reached the scene, the building was ablaze. The first job was to remove those able to walk.

A funeral home director Richard Eastman, said many persons were trapped in their beds.

The first word of the fire came to the sheriff's office at 5 a.m. from a truck driver who was driving near the home on U.S. 250. The driver, who was not identified, helped in removing some of the old age patients.

The home was described as an institution for ailing old persons.

Officials Air Situation in Viet Nam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
A Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top U.S. officials who assessed the post-coup situation in South Viet Nam reportedly concluded the new military regime still must prove it can win support of the Vietnamese peasants.

Administration officials who met in Honolulu two days ago with American diplomatic and military leaders from South Viet Nam agreed cautiously that things are going reasonably well so far.

Sources familiar with what went on at the Hawaii conference indicated the report to President Kennedy is unlikely to call for any sharp policy changes.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who was among those taking part in the Honolulu talks, will meet Sunday afternoon with President Kennedy at the chief executive's country place in Virginia. The ambassador's personal report may have a bearing on any decision regarding the timing of possible recognition of the Saigon military regime.

The views that Kennedy eventually gets from all of the top participants in the Hawaii meeting are expected to sum up this consensus:

The signs are promising but it may take six months to tell whether the overthrow of the Diem regime has brought victory in the anti-Communist war closer.

U.S. officials do not expect a Democratic regime patterned after the American image to emerge in South Viet Nam.

What they are hoping for is a government that foresees brutality and repression — and thus far the military junta seems to be tending in that direction.

The Honolulu meeting was told that the peasants who make up the bulk of South Viet Nam's 14-million population still are apathetic.

It long has been a cornerstone of U.S. policy that the war against Communist insurgents infesting South Viet Nam cannot be won without the backing of the peasants.

Sharp Election Plans Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee approved Wednesday Sharp County's plans to hold its election of local committeemen a month later than other counties in the state.

The election will be held on Jan. 7.

Committee members said the county had gotten behind in its procedures and should be allowed to delay its election.

The state ASC Committee on Sept. 19 ordered Sharp County to hold its election at polling places instead of by mail, as do other counties.

This Year Marks the 100th Anniversary of Thanksgiving as a Holiday in the U.S.

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

This year marks the 100th anniversary of Thanksgiving as a national holiday in the United States. President Abraham Lincoln issued the first proclamation for a national observance of Thanksgiving in 1863.

In the last 100 years, the phrase "Thank You" has gotten harder and harder to say, apparently. Elsewhere, "Thank You Notes" so small or table grace said by so few?

Some people even wonder just what to be thankful for. Surely this isn't a serious request for knowledge. Even those without too many material blessings have enough of the other kind to keep them talking, or thinking, a long time.

The old Pilgrim's Grace inscribed in Chester Cathedral, England, gives us all a few points to ponder, and we would do well to think about it.

"Give me a good digestion, Lord, and also something to digest."

"Give me a healthy body, Lord, with sense to keep it at its best."

"Give me a healthy mind, oh Lord, to keep the good and pure in sight."

"Which seeing sin is not appalled, but finds a way to set it right."

"Give me a mind that is not bound, that does not whimper, whine or sigh."

"Don't let me worry over much about the fussy thing called life."

"Give me a sense of humor, Lord, give me the grace to see a joke."

"To get some happiness from life and pass it on to other folk."

The other day a suggestion for observing Thanksgiving came our way, and it was something many people consider doing but too few of us carry out in practice.

Is there someone who meant a lot to you in your formative years, who was responsible, perhaps, in your choice of vocation, or who guided you in making a decision which proved beneficial? Have you ever told them how much you appreciate what they did? Perhaps it is a teacher who inspired you or a minister who sustained you. It could have been a good friend who stood by you. Tell them or write them a sincere Thank You. It may come as a surprise, but what a pleasant surprise!

Some have waited too long to utter verbal thanks on this earth, but those of you who are still to say it, do by all means! You will experience the happiest Thanksgiving ever if you remember to offer gratitude to both God and your fellow man.

Bulletin

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Gov. John B. Connally was reported in satisfactory condition today after undergoing surgery for a bullet wound in his chest.

Connally was shot as he sat in the same open car as President Kennedy Friday in a motorcade through Dallas. A sniper's bullet killed Kennedy.

Connally underwent surgery for more than one hour. After awakening, he asked: "How's Nellie?" referring to his wife. He then asked: "How are the kids?" and went back to sleep.

Dr. Robert Shaw, his attending physician, described the governor as "mentally alert, his condition satisfactory and stable."

"I do not anticipate his getting worse," Shaw said.

Malvern Men Get 200,000 Judgment

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — Two Malvern men were awarded $200,000 each Thursday by a Hot Spring County jury for injuries they received in a train accident.

Assistant Arkansas Atty. Gen. Les Everts of Little Rock said today he believed it was the largest personal injury damage award in the state's history.

Arlie Mitchell, 45, and James Rogers, 26, were awarded judgments against the Missouri-Pacific Railroad and the Malvern Gravel Co.

Their suit said they were working for the gravel company, loading gravel cars, on May 10, 1962, when a Missouri Pacific locomotive smashed into the string of cars.

Mitchell suffered a crushed pelvis and hip. Rogers lost his left leg. Medical testimony in the trial was to the effect that neither would be able to work again.

The men had asked $250,000 each.

Missouri-Pacific and the gravel company were to pay $100,000 to each man under the judgment.

The accident occurred in yards one mile south of Malvern.

Warns Gop Candidates They'll Work

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Republican National Chairman William E. Miller warned GOP presidential hopefuls they will have to work for the Republican nomination because there will be no draft candidate.

"I think anyone who wants the nomination in 1964 ought to be about it right now," Rep. Miller of New York said.

"Anyone who just sits by expecting to be drafted will be disappointed."

Thus far, he said, the nomination will go either to Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York — who has announced as a candidate — or Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona — "who it seems to me will soon announce."

"I believe Nixon (former Vice President Richard M. Nixon) when he says he is not a candidate and does not intend to be a candidate."

Miller called for GOP presidential aspirants to enter state preferential primaries. He said if anyone won all the primaries — as President Kennedy did in 1960 — the Republican convention could not deny him the nomination.

Miller is in St. Louis for a two-day, 13-state regional Republican meeting which ends Saturday.

Board Won't Take Up Integration

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The University of Arkansas board of trustees meets today in Fayetteville, but a popular topic for discussion around the Southwest Conference — use of Negroes on athletic teams — will probably not be officially discussed by the board.

The idea of integrated teams at the university appeared to meet with little favor among the trustees during a pool taken Thursday by The Associated Press.

Generally, board members contacted felt the school's athletic program is getting along well and the board wants to avoid anything that might disrupt the program or involve it in controversy.

One board member said, "I think people take it for granted that we are against it."

Two Southwest Conference teams — Texas and Southern Methodist — said earlier this week that they would start letting Negroes play on their teams, probably in the near future.

Board members said the question of integration of athletics is not on the agenda for the meeting today, and they said they did not think it would be discussed officially. Some indicated, however, that there might be some unofficial discussion.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus has said he is against integrating the university teams; University of Arkansas President David Mullins had no comment, and Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles has said integration of athletics will not be his decision and that he will not comment on it.

Johnson was in the car behind Kennedy's when three bullets from a sniper ripped into the open presidential limousine, striking Kennedy in the head and throat and wounding Texas Gov. John Connally.

Blood sprang from the President's face and he fell forward in the back seat of the car. Mrs. Kennedy, who had been riding with him, tried to lift his head, crying, "Oh, no!"

Half an hour later John F. Kennedy, 46, the first Roman Catholic and youngest man ever elected to the presidency, was dead.

It was stunning, almost unbelievable news that flashed around the country and to the far reaches of the world.

Expressions of grief, sorrow, surprise poured in from friends and antagonists, allies and foes, from the Kremlin and from the Vatican.

For Johnson, the problems were just beginning.

By moving into the White House he also assumes leadership of the West in the cold war — and faces the major question of whether Soviet Premier Khrushchev will stir up a new crisis to test the mettle of the new American chief executive.

Judging from Johnson's public statements, no big change in foreign policy appeared likely, for he has strongly supported the Kennedy line.

Another problem is Congress where Kennedy's legislative program — the tax reduction bill and civil rights legislation — is stalled apparently for the rest of the year.

Johnson won his fame, however, by whipping and cajoling senators toward his way of thinking.

But the consensus on Capitol Hill is that there will be no more battles in the halls of Congress this year.

World Is Stunned by Tragic Assassination of U. S. President

Johnson Takes Over Affairs of the Nation

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Asking God's help, Lyndon B. Johnson gathered up the monumental problems of the presidency today as the world, the nation and his family mourned John F. Kennedy, dead by an assassin's bullets.

"I will do my best—that's all I can do. I ask for your help and God's," said the new President, numbed and haggard, after accompanying the slain chief executive's body back to Washington from Dallas.

A few hours after the slaying, Dallas police charged a 24-year-old man who professed love for Russia with murder and said he was the assassin. He was identified as Lee Harvey Oswald.

As arrangements were made for family, friends and dignitaries to view Kennedy's body at the White House today, Johnson set about getting advice on the troubles that abruptly were thrust into his hands.

He set up morning conferences with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who not many years ago listened to advice from Johnson, then leader of the Democratic opposition in the Senate—some say the most able leader the Senate ever had.

Almost as soon as he arrived back in Washington Friday night, the 55-year-old Texan with a reputation as a tough political genius plunged into a meeting of congressional leaders of both parties where he asked for and got pledges of support in his days of trial ahead.

Johnson, who fought a losing fight against Kennedy for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960, automatically became the 36th President of the United States the moment Kennedy's life ebbed away in the emergency room of a Dallas hospital.

Johnson was in the car behind Kennedy's when three bullets from a sniper ripped into the open presidential limousine, striking Kennedy in the head and throat and wounding Texas Gov. John Connally.

Blood sprang from the President's face and he fell forward in the back seat of the car. Mrs. Kennedy, who had been riding with him, tried to lift his head, crying, "Oh, no!"

Half an hour later John F. Kennedy, 46, the first Roman Catholic and youngest man ever elected to the presidency, was dead.

It was stunning, almost unbelievable news that flashed around the country and to the far reaches of the world.

Expressions of grief, sorrow, surprise poured in from friends and antagonists, allies and foes, from the Kremlin and from the Vatican.

For Johnson, the problems were just beginning.

By moving into the White House he also assumes leadership of the West in the cold war — and faces the major question of whether Soviet Premier Khrushchev will stir up a new crisis to test the mettle of the new American chief executive.

Judging from Johnson's public statements, no big change in foreign policy appeared likely, for he has strongly supported the Kennedy line.

Another problem is Congress where Kennedy's legislative program — the tax reduction bill and civil rights legislation — is stalled apparently for the rest of the year.

Johnson won his fame, however, by whipping and cajoling senators toward his way of thinking.

But the consensus on Capitol Hill is that there will be no more battles in the halls of Congress this year.

Also coming soon was a decision whether Johnson will campaign to try to win the presidency in his own right in 1964.

Even as the troubles of the world and the country whirled on, the nation lowered its flags to half staff in mourning for its young President with the Harvard accent whose watchword became "vigil."

Today, Kennedy's body was to lie in repose in the East Room of the White House as dignitaries—Eisenhower among them—file by.

Sunday his body will be carried in a somber cortege up the route of presidents and heroes—Pennsylvania Avenue—to the Capitol where he will lie in state until Monday morning beneath the towering dome of the Capitol.

Then it will be taken to St. Matthews Roman Catholic Cathedral, a few blocks from the White House, where Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, will celebrate a Pontifical Requiem Mass at noon.

Another former President, Harry S. Truman, will come to Washington Sunday to pay homage to Kennedy and his respects to the new chief executive.

Burial plans were uncertain. There were unconfirmed reports Kennedy would be buried where his infant son Patrick was interred just a few weeks ago in a family plot in a Brookline, Mass., cemetery. Arlington National Cemetery was another possibility.

There was no word whether the late President's two children, Caroline and John Jr., had been told of their father's death. Both have birthdays this month—Caroline turning 6 and John 3.

Friday night, Mrs. Kennedy went to Bethesda Naval Hospital where Kennedy's body was prepared for burial.

Also at the hospital were Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, the late President's brother and chief adviser, and several close aides, said the assistant White House press secretary, Andrew Hatcher.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A young man who once tried to renounce his country is charged with firing the two bullets that killed President Kennedy.

"No, I didn't kill the President," Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, said after he was charged Friday night with murder in the President's assassination.

Oswald swore allegiance to the Soviet Union four years ago and tried to renounce his American citizenship. He said he is now a member of "Fair Play for Cuba." Police termed him arrogant.

President Kennedy died 30 minutes after the assassin's bullets crashed into his neck and head as he neared the end of a triumphal motorcade Friday.

A third bullet wounded Texas Gov. John Connally. His condition was reported not critical.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade of Dallas was asked if authorities were looking for anyone else in connection with the world-stunning murder.

"There is no one else but him," Wade said.

Taken before microphones and cameras early today, Oswald managed an occasional smile as he insisted in a low voice that he was innocent of Kennedy's death.

Wade was asked if he regarded Oswald as Communist — inspired or "just a nut."

He replied: "Well put it this way. I don't think he is a nut. I think he is sane."

Oswald had been taken into custody soon after Kennedy was fatally shot and Gov. Connally wounded in the back by three volleys fired from a high-powered rifle.

Kennedy and Connally had been riding side by side in the presidential limousine, their wives sitting just ahead of them.

The key factor that led to Oswald's arrest at 2 p.m. Friday — an hour after the President's death — was the apparently senseless killing of a Dallas policeman.

Authorities said a clear trail led to Oswald and he was charged earlier with murder in the death of the officer.

A Pro-Castro Sympathizer Prime Suspect

By RAYMOND HOLBROOK and PEGGY SIMPSON

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with murdering President Kennedy, insisted during hours of questioning Friday night that he was not the assassin.

With his jaw thrust out and his dark eyes intent and piercing, Oswald kept telling newsmen: "I did not kill President Kennedy. I did not kill anyone. I don't know what this is all about."

After the formal charges were filed, Oswald was brought before newsmen. Speaking in a low voice into a cluster of microphones thrust into his face he denied killing the President.

He appeared less defiant than earlier in the evening but still was composed. He smiled several times as he was being questioned.

"I don't think he is a nut," Dist. Atty. Henry Wade told newsmen. "I think he is sane. I don't mean that he is any Ph. D., but he answers questions very easily, and he is sharp."

Secret Service agents, Dallas police and FBI men had quizzed Oswald for almost 10 hours before charging him with the murder of the President. Earlier in the evening he was charged with the unprovoked slaying of a policeman 50 minutes after the assassination.

City detective Ed Hicks, after intensive investigation of the slaying, drew this picture of the hour surrounding the tragedy:

Oswald was working on the fifth floor of the Texas book depository, the floor from which the shots were fired. A man working with him said: "Oswald, let's go see the President."

Oswald replied: "No, you go on down and send the elevator back up."

As Oswald left the building, he was stopped by Dallas police. Oswald told them he worked in the building and was going down to see what was going on.

In the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, four miles away, Oswald was seen 45 minutes later talking to a policeman, J. D. Tippett. A witness said that Oswald suddenly whipped out a pistol and shot the officer.

Shortly afterward, police received a tip that a suspicious looking man had entered a theater on West Jefferson Street, not far from where Tippett had been slain.

Officers surrounded the theater, and then entered. When they spotted Oswald near the rear, he pulled out his pistol and pulled the trigger. It failed to go off, and the officers jumped him.

In the scuffle that followed, one patrolman was cut on the face before Oswald was subdued. As they snapped the handcuffs on his wrists, Oswald was heard to say: "It's all over."

An angry crowd had gathered around the theater when the suspect was pulled out and put into a patrol wagon. When he was booked, officers noted that his height and weight—5 feet 9, 160 pounds—tallied with the description given of a man who was seen near the assassination area.

The intensive questioning began. A steady stream of witnesses and officers filed into the crowded office where Oswald was held. Later his mother and Russian-born wife, carrying a tiny baby, entered.

Takes Swipe at Urban Renewal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Bruce Alger, R-Tex., took a hefty swipe at urban renewal and the federal government in general in a speech via long distance telephone Wednesday night to an Area Development Workshop in Little Rock.
Alger was scheduled to speak in person, but pressing business in Washington kept him in the capital, so the telephone hook-up was arranged.
He labeled congressional action this year socialistic and said urban renewal is the tool the federal government uses to destroy the right of eminent domain.
Alger hinted at misuse of urban renewal and said some instances may come to light in the near future. He cited false certification as an example.
Private power companies cannot compete with the tax exemptions awarded public power, he said.

Will Pay Only If Board Says Too

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP) — Former Springdale School Supt. J. O. Kelly has issued a statement saying the school board must decide whether he is to pay back $1,483 state auditors say he owes the district.
Kelly said he would repay the money if the school board requests it.
The School Audit Division of the state comptroller's office reported Monday that Kelly had spent the money without authority, mostly for car expenses.
Kelly claimed in his statement that he had done no wrong, that it was necessary for the superintendent to visit various schools in the district and that the district should pay for this. Kelly resigned as superintendent earlier this year.

Gops Making Great Leaps Forward

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans are making a great leap or ward.
It's only the fall of 1963 but they're making it sound like their 1964 election campaign against the Kennedy administration.
"Things have gone from bad to worse," said New York's Sen. Jacob K. Javits.
"Our international standing has slipped low, indeed," said Texas Sen. John Tower.
Said Illinois Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, leader of Senate Republicans: President Kennedy is "engaging in dangerous economic brinkmanship."
Said Indiana's Rep. Charles Halleck, Republican House leader: "The Kennedy administration 'adds up to almost total failure for . . . three empty years.'"
And Dirksen and Halleck together said: Kennedy is offering the country "apologetic and bankrupt leadership."
Kennedy himself meanwhile has been out building his fences for re-election although he hasn't opened up on the Republicans yet.
He can afford to wait since the Republicans at this point aren't sure what kind of leader they want themselves.
In replying to GOP criticism of Kennedy, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield suggested:
Critics of Kennedy should ask themselves: "What would I do if I were in the President's shoes?"
This was a real toughie, as can be seen from what the Republicans' two front-runners for the presidential nomination have been saying.
These two New York Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater D have done no end of talking without any agreement on how they'd handle the White House.
Kennedy, while trying to ignore the Republicans' complaints except for an occasional jibe or two, is prepared to campaign for re-election with the claim he got the country moving again.
It has been forecast that his main campaign themes will be peace and prosperity. He had already laid the groundwork for part of this by pointing to "significant progress on the economic front."
Whether he can point to peace, too, depends on whether there is any by election time next year.
Halleck has stuck his finger into one of the weakest spots on the Democratic front: The astonishing record of sloth piled up by this Congress in which Democrats run the show by far outnumbering Republicans.
Halleck puts the blame for this dilapidated Democratic showing on Kennedy's "mismanagement." Because of the big Democratic majorities in both Houses, Halleck says, Kennedy "can have no alibi."
It's true Kennedy has shown mighty little fire in trying to get his own Democratic-run Congress to approve his programs. He never criticizes Congress.
Least of all does he criticize the individual Democrats in Congress who torpedoed him. But then the Democratic party at times looks more like a group of factions than a party.
It's split into conservatives, liberals and some rare reactionaries.
But so are the Republicans, one of the realities which Halleck, Dirksen and the rest find nicer not to mention although any Republican president, like any Democratic president, would have to deal with these factions.
It's the power of these factions, especially when they cross party lines to combine, that often makes the election-year campaign promises of the parties look like a joke.
The crowd of about 2,000 persons thundered approval of Thomas' prediction that Kennedy will be re-elected next year.

HOW TO BE A GOOD WIFE

By Helen Worden Erskine
Dear Helen: "Frustrated" wrote you that her husband was a cold fish. She described herself as "warm-hearted, affectionate and outgoing."
That man must have loved her, else he would never have married her. Most likely he discovered too late, that she was the bossy type, determined to carry out her ideas, willy-nilly.
Her letter indicates that she assumed leadership early and smothered the poor guy with affection, much as one would a child or pet.
He should have had it out with her at the start. Instead he kept his feelings to himself, taking out his resentment at frustrating her every step of the way. She became the aggressor, forcing him to a back seat. And when he did she was unhappy about that.
What is the answer? Certainly not criticism, anger or helpful suggestions. Silently, unobtrusively, she must build up his confidence and self-respect. He needs someone to have the faith in himself which he lacks. She should arouse the protective instinct in him, make herself attractive and create an atmosphere of quiet serenity in the home. She and it ought to be his haven.
I advise her to bone up on books about making friends and keeping them. The philosophy of such books is "forget self, be interested in the other fellow."
She should come to him with her problems, heed his advice, play up his keen insight, soften her own, make it appear that he is right and she is wrong. He will gloat over her mistakes for a time but eventually will love her for being only human. In the end this will make him the aggressor, physically as well as mentally.
Granted she has to swallow her pride and hold her tongue, exercising patience and self-control at all times but the need justifies the means.
Above all, she must act as if everything was perfectly normal and, once the situation is righted, be careful not to repeat the mistake. If she plays her part well she will gradually become the wife whose role she has assumed. By remaining

He Apparently Has Golden Touch

BERKHAMPTSTAD, England (AP) — The parents of Michael Gann, 4, say he has the golden touch.
By showing his father, William, how to fill out his weekly football pool form, Michael has just won $6,203.
By British law, children are not allowed to enter the pools, based on the results of the nation's weekly soccer games.
Michael fills out a dummy again and every fiber of her being begged for that kiss, every shred of her wavering common sense warned that if Peter kissed her with the same surging passion, if she responded again—
His cheek pressing hers, he held her close, as shaken as she was, she somehow was sure; then very gently, he put her from him. "I had no intention of doing that, Ann."
From somewhere she summoned calm. "I know, Peter." Although he still was standing very close she couldn't distinguish the face. Her own felt as if it was blanching even though her lips still remembered his and the jugular pulses still were twin trip hammers in her throat.
He again was the Peter McDonnell who worked across the operating table from her . . . the Peter McDonnell the town expected to marry Helen Leddie. He stooped to find the flashlight that had tumbled to the ground and when, a few minutes later as they returned to the car, he helped her down the tricky stretches of the path and over the rail fence his hand on her arm was as rock-steady as if nothing more had happened than their rubber-gloved hands chancing to touch during an operation.
They were almost back to town when ahead of them down the highway, the flashing red light that belonged to either an ambulance or a police car and its companion keening siren sprang almost simultaneously into their ken. Following it closely was another. "Ambulances," Peter identified the speeding vehicles a moment later. "We had better follow them, Ann."
The ambulances were waiting past them, Peter was swinging off the highway to turn and waiting exasperating minutes for an opening in the queue of cars in the wake of the ambulances. "They'll be underfoot and in the way and tomorrow when they read it in the paper they'll get a thrill out of saying they saw it," said Peter.

XXIV
"Dr. Hank and I understand each other, Ann," Peter went on. "Don't forget, he brought me here in the first place."
She knew the story. "And here you are."
"And here I am," he echoed. "It may not be the ideal setup, Ann. There are plenty of times when I think my brain must have atrophied early or I wouldn't stay, but I do. I guess it's not any wonder Helen says this place is an obsession with me."
Suddenly realizing that they were on the road to Peter's 43 acres Ann said, "I can't think of a nicer obsession."
"Neither can I. Only it isn't that, Ann." He slowed the car. "That view from your window wall must be just about perfect in the moonlight." Even if the window wall was years away, might never be built at all, and even if it was she might never see the superb view through it.
They climbed the rail fence and the narrow path by flashlight because only snatches of moonlight penetrated the trees whose branches interlaced overhead.
The moonlight. The tiny valley with its birches, the hills that spread to infinity, it seemed, as the moon touched them with silver and yet, somehow, magically, left some of them in shadow, silhouetted against the thinner blackness

Revenue Building Contract Feb. 1

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state hopes to let a contract for construction of a new Revenue Department building about Feb. 1.
Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said test borings on the site, just west of the capitol grounds, have been completed and an architect is now drawing the plans and writing specifications.
The construction will take about a year.
The state advanced $200,000 to the Little Rock Housing Authority which is acquiring the one block property as part of an Urban Renewal program. Some of the property owners are going to court seeking more money for their property and Cheney said it is possible the state will have to make an additional payment on the land.
The proposed building will have about 75,000 square feet on three levels.
The 1961 legislature allocated $1.6 million for the building. mainland.

SAIGON, Viet Nam. (AP) —

South Viet Nam's new revolutionary government will establish a commission to investigate crimes committed during former President Ngo Dinh Diem's tenure of office.
The commission will be instructed, an announcement said, "to investigate all crimes committed by private persons or agents of public services who took advantage of their official position to arrest and detain people unlawfully, torture and rape, or murder nationalist elements opposed to the Diem dictatorship."
The period to be investigated will run from Oct. 26, 1955, when Diem was given supreme power by a referendum, to last Nov. 1, when he was overthrown by a military coup.

SWC Play Almost Ends Saturday

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer
Baylor and Southern Methodist get together in the annual Baptist vs. Methodist football melee Saturday and the game has double-significance - for Texas and Baylor.
Texas is interested because a Baylor defeat would give the Longhorns the Southwest Conference championship. Baylor is interested because it would not only knock the Bears out of contention for a championship title but would ruin their hopes of a bowl game.
Southern Methodist has a few things at stake itself, but they wouldn't be of any interest to outsiders. For one, if SMU should humble Baylor it would insure a 50-50 season - something Southern Methodist hasn't come close to in three years.
Texas, winner of nine straight games and with the Cotton Bowl host spot clinched, doesn't need the SMU triumph over Southern Methodist. But it would save the Longhorns a lot of worry because if SMU doesn't turn the trick then Texas will need to beat Texas A&M on Thanksgiving to bring it about.
There are two more conference games on the Saturday schedule but neither means as much as the proverbial hill of beans since all four teams have already been eliminated from the championship running.
Rice, which faded from the picture last week when it got upset by lowly Texas A&M, and Texas Christian play at Fort Worth.
Texas Tech and Arkansas meet at Fayetteville. A victory for Texas Tech would bring it a winning season for the first time in eight years. A defeat for Arkansas would give the Razorbacks their worst record since 1958 when it was 4-6.
Tech is 5-4 for the season while Arkansas is 4-5.
Texas and Texas A&M meet this week. They close out the season against each other next Thursday.
Three out of five last week.
Timidly - Baylor-Southern Methodist - Logic says Baylor but a team that's down in the dumps and has its biggest scoring threat out with an injury isn't likely to beat anybody. Southern Methodist in a close one.
Rice-Texas Christian - Rice

Wonder Boys Take First Contest

LITTLE ROCK (AP) -The Arkansas Tech Wonder Boys jumped to a quick lead and were never seriously threatened Thursday night as they beat Little Rock University 89-65 in basketball.
Ahead 47-22 at the half, Tech had to fight off one spurt by the Trojans which moved LRU to within less than 20 points, but the rally soon ended.
Larry LeFevres led Tech scoring with 15 points and Chester Barner collected 13 for the winners. Top scorer for LRU was Ron Hubbard with 13.
Tech hit almost 45 per cent from the field while the Trojans only got 31.7 per cent of their shots through.

Bankrupt Firm Has Been Sold

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Nibco Inc. of Elkhart, Ind., is the new owner of the Scott Valve Co. of Blytheville. Referee in Bankruptcy Arnold Adams approved the sale Wednesday on a high auction bid of $436,700, submitted at Blytheville Tuesday.
Adams told Nibco to take possession immediately. He said the Indiana firm would pay half the money down and the other half in six months at six per cent interest.
Leon Burrow of Blytheville, a trustee in bankruptcy, said Scott Valve had been making a small profit and paying its debts while operating in trusteeship. He said $30,000 to $40,000 in bills such as utility bills and taxes had been paid.
suit which seeks to have two Negroes enrolled in Fort Smith's all-white Northside High School has been postponed from Thursday because of repair and remodeling of the building which houses the court. No new date for the hearing was set. Negroes now attend the first seven grades of previously all-white schools under a grade-a-year plan.

Bobcats Rack Up 20-6 Win on Muddy Field

By CARTER HARDAGE Hope Star Sports Writer
Last night the Bobcat proved their versatility by whipping the Arkadelphia Badgers in a water polo match 20-6. This is the tenth victory in a row for Hope.
The Bobcats racked up 350 yards rushing, even more amazing due to the condition of the field. There was water standing all over it. Quarterback Mac McLarty and fullback Richard McDowell both racked up over a hundred yards apiece. Combine these factors with the ability of the Hope forward wall to crack the Badger line, and you have the game in a nutshell.
A cold, cutting wind began to sweep the field as the few hearty followers of the game arrived on the scene. It was a bleak night, with few hopes of proving anything else.
A scoreless First Quarter began with the Bobcats receiving the kick, so naturally the Badgers chose to have the current with them. It was pointed out, however, that there was actually little to worry about. Dan Jones and Richard McDowell were both senior lifesavers, and others, such as Johnson, Walker, Butler and McLarty, could easily keep afloat.
The Bobcat offensive machine started to roll, or swim, whichever you prefer, down into Badger territory. But somebody threw the wrench into the works at the 23 with a fumble that Arkadelphia recovered.
Here Arkadelphia pulled a class A-1 surprise by throwing in a shotgun offense. This is where the two halfbacks spread wide, and the quarterback takes the snap from about one yard deep and to the side of the fullback.
They penetrated to the Bobcat 25, but there James Marcum grabbed a loose ball to stop the drive. The quarter passed.
Runs by McDowell and Burnett moved the Cats down to the 15, where McLarty faded back for the bomb, but decided to run it instead. He found the hole over left tackle and went in for the tally. Buddy Jordan kicked the extra point, and Hope led 7-0.
Arkadelphia couldn't move, and punted out to the Hope 39. The Cats recrossed the center stripe to invade Badger territory to the 17, but there another fumble let the Cats fall short on the scoring opportunity.
Hope regained the ball on the punt, and this time they weren't about to let any chances slip through their fingers, no matter how wet they were. A 37-yard run by Burnett got the Cats within striking distance at the 30, and from there they worked it in to the 15. Here, with a fourth and four situation, McLarty flicked a short pass to Burnett, who went in behind the block of McMahan. With 27 seconds left in the Half, Jordan booted the PAT to put the Cats in a 14-0 advantage.
Arkadelphia got the second half kick, but quickly got rid of the ball on a McDowell interception. Three plays later McDowell finished the job by carrying it

Wonder Boys Take First Contest

LITTLE ROCK (AP) -The Arkansas Tech Wonder Boys jumped to a quick lead and were never seriously threatened Thursday night as they beat Little Rock University 89-65 in basketball.
Ahead 47-22 at the half, Tech had to fight off one spurt by the Trojans which moved LRU to within less than 20 points, but the rally soon ended.
Larry LeFevres led Tech scoring with 15 points and Chester Barner collected 13 for the winners. Top scorer for LRU was Ron Hubbard with 13.

Bankrupt Firm Has Been Sold

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Nibco Inc. of Elkhart, Ind., is the new owner of the Scott Valve Co. of Blytheville. Referee in Bankruptcy Arnold Adams approved the sale Wednesday on a high auction bid of $436,700, submitted at Blytheville Tuesday.
Adams told Nibco to take possession immediately. He said the Indiana firm would pay half the money down and the other half in six months at six per cent interest.
Leon Burrow of Blytheville, a trustee in bankruptcy, said Scott Valve had been making a small profit and paying its debts while operating in trusteeship. He said $30,000 to $40,000 in bills such as utility bills and taxes had been paid.
suit which seeks to have two Negroes enrolled in Fort Smith's all-white Northside High School has been postponed from Thursday because of repair and remodeling of the building which houses the court. No new date for the hearing was set. Negroes now attend the first seven grades of previously all-white schools under a grade-a-year plan.

"We Thank Thee, Lord"

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

... That is the simplest form of prayer, the most elemental act of Christian devotion... "We thank Thee, Lord, for our daily food."

How is it at your house??? Is grace at meals a fixed habit where you live? Do you pause to offer homage to God for the edibles... the very things He alone can give? Or is your gratitude shown only once-in-a-while when the pastor is company, or when the children are all home for Thanksgiving dinner? How long is it, Dad, since the family heard your voice saying grace at the table...? or a word of simple prayer for their welfare...? or even bothered to urge another to say, "Thank you, Lord, for all these bounties???"

Dad, — Mother, — you owe your household this much of a godly heritage. Attend church regularly and say grace at mealtime. God will hear your supplication.

THE CHURCHES OF THIS COMMUNITY ARE THE ONLY INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE AS THEIR MAIN FUNCTION, THE TRANSFORMING OF HUMAN LIVES. THEY ARE THE SIGN BOARDS POINTING THE WAY TO GOD.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through these pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted... to combat Communism on all fronts... to be faithful to God.

OUR PASTORS ARE GOD'S SERVANTS WHO CALL THE SIGNALS AGAINST THE ORGANIZED FORCES OF EVIL. THEY INVITE YOU TO ENLIST ON THE SIDE FOR GOD...
